

INDIAN CLASSICAL KATHAK DANCE PERFORMANCE

APRIL 10TH, 2015 | 2: 30 PM

THE DOUG ADAMS GALLERY

The Graduate Theological Union | Co-Sponsored by CARE

Center for the Arts, Religion and Education

An acclaimed Kathak dance artist, Rina Mehta combines exceptional technique, artistic vision and compelling presence to create innovative dance performances. Since joining the Chitresh Das Dance Company (CDDC)—named for renowned Kathak master Pandit Chitresh Das—in 2000, she has performed in many critically-acclaimed productions. She has performed as a soloist and with CDDC at such prestigious venues/festivals nationally and in India as REDCAT (Roy and Edna Disney/Cal Arts Theater), Meany Hall for Performing Arts (University of Washington), Tata Theater/NCPA in Mumbai, and the Shaniwarwada Dance Festival in Pune. Rina Mehta is founder and director of The Leela Institute for the Arts, an organization dedicated to advancing India's arts.

*Co-Sponsored by the GTU Hindu Studies
Initiative and the
Dharma Civilization
Foundation*

