

DOMINICAN SCHOOL OF PHILOSOPHY & THEOLOGY

23RD ANNUAL AQUINAS LECTURE

Baptismal Theology and Practice in the Age of St. Thomas Aquinas

Fr. Augustine Thompson, OP, DSPT Professor of History

Fr. Augustine Thompson, OP will examine new discoveries about the liturgical and social significance of baptism in the cities of thirteenth-century Italy. These developments will be compared with the development of the theology of baptism from the twelfth century to Thomas Aquinas in the late thirteenth. Reception to follow.

Wednesday, February 27, 2013 at 7:30 pm

2301 Vine Street, Berkeley

watch online at dspt.edu/streaming

---

Fr. Augustine, OP has a PhD from UC Berkeley and holds the STM from the Dominican Order. He is the author of Francis of Assisi: A New Biography, Cities of God: The Religion of the Italian Communes, 1125–1325 and Revival Preachers and Politics: The Great Devotion of 1233.

dspt.edu

(888) 450-3778